

Games & Activities to engage adults

OVERVIEW: Trainers wanting to keep their skills updated and engaging will enjoy this one day workshop. During the day, trainers develop tools which they can take back to their workplace and implement next day.

Aim: To enable trainers to develop and utilise games and activities to enhance the learning process and introduce some fun in the training environment

Workshop Outcomes:

- Re-energise and update training techniques
- Increase the application of training activities
- Design new approaches to training

Agenda:

- What we bring to the training room
- Using the principles of adult learning
- Adapting to others' learning styles
- Do's & don'ts of games & activities
- Games for general use
- How to make activities specific to your workplace
- Where to find more resources
- How to use what materials you have on hand

Presented by Catherine Logue

Catherine has been involved in the business sector for 40 years. Working in the training sector she shares her experiences and workable applications with her participants. Her qualifications in education and business provide a balanced and innovative approach to training. She delivers nationally accredited courses as well as designing and delivering workshops for the corporate sector.

Her talent in facilitation has seen her present overseas in Los Angeles, Montreal, Auckland and Las Vegas. Nationally her clients include Australia Post, Dept of Transport, University SA, University Adelaide, PMA Australia, PMA International, IPI USA, ESCOSA, Southern Health, City of Tea Tree Gully, Pacific National and Haigh's Chocolates.

Catherine has written several resources for trainers. She has developed a resource business called 'Teaching Tools' which produces a range of props and activities for educators and facilitators to aid the learning process.

Course enquiries please contact Di Casey on Phone: 08 82270310 or di@trainingforlearning.com