

INNOVATIVE IDEAS IN ASSESSMENT

Training for Learning Co.
Realise your potential

OVERVIEW: Trainers and assessors are seeking alternative ways to assess participants. This workshop is designed to enhance the existing skills of assessors and provide a range of assessment activities to add interest and variation to the assessment process.

AIM: To provide fresh ideas and variety in the activities used to assess participants.

WORKSHOP OUTCOMES

- How to plan a new approach
- How to create a safe environment
- Techniques for group assessments

AGENDA

- New assessment techniques
- Techniques to inject some new life in to those regular assessment processes
- Which assessment skills work best to create a safe environment
- Exploring ideas for group assessments
- Use of traditional ideas with a new twist
- How to create your own toolkit & develop props that can be reused

Presented by Catherine Logue

Catherine has been involved in the business sector for 40 years. Working in the training sector she shares her experiences and workable applications with her participants. Her qualifications in education and business provide a balanced and innovative approach to training. She delivers nationally accredited courses as well as designing and delivering workshops for the corporate sector.

Her talent in facilitation has seen her present overseas in Los Angeles, Montreal, Auckland and Las Vegas. Nationally her clients include Australia Post, Dept of Transport, University SA, University Adelaide, PMA Australia, PMA International, IPI USA, ESCOSA, Southern Health, City of Tea Tree Gully, Pacific National and Haigh's Chocolates.

Catherine has written several resources for trainers and assessors. She has developed a resource business called 'Teaching Tools' which produces a range of props and activities for educators and facilitators to aid the learning process. Some of these ideas can be adapted for specific workplaces where assessment has previously been conducted as an examination.

Course enquiries please contact Di Casey on Phone: 08 82270310 or di@trainingforlearning.com